

NGSU Representative Training and Development Record

Your work as a Union Officer/Representative provides a range of training and development opportunities that can enhance and compliment the skills required in your job at Nationwide. You can use this log to record the key activities you have been involved with and to identify how these have contributed to your personal development.

Your role as a Union Officer/Representative is valued by Nationwide and the work involved should be recognised within your Performance Agreement. You may wish to refer to this document during your interim and annual performance reviews as part of your discussions about the contribution you have made in your Union role.

Name:

Union Office:

Covering Period of Office:
From To

Development & Training Record

Date	Key Activities	What did you learn?	How will you use this?